

You approach the screaming man and start listening to him: "HELP! My greatest work has been stolen from me! Someone help me! Please!".

Other people seem not to believe him: "Shut up! You idiot! We're sick of your lies!".

The man notes you, and grab your clothes asking your help: "Please help me! I am the Poeta Errante, and my Divina Commedia disappeared! I found this in its place!"

You note a piece of paper in the hand of the Poeta Errante, and what is written on it can not belong to this epoch! Maybe it's the work of Zer0...

What do you want to do? [help poeta errante, go away]: help poeta errante

Ludovico Arrosto
Poetry Academy
Via Vittorio Emanuele II, 21
Firenze
Italy
l.arrosto@pacademy.com

We now know Ludovico Arrosto's address. We can now go on with the challenge.

"Where are we going?": Via Vittorio Emanuele II, 21

"You know where Ludovico Arrosto lives? Great! Let's go!"
You and the Poeta Errante leave the house and start walking in the direction of Ludovico Arrosto's mansion...

You and the Poeta Errante arrive at Ludovico Arrosto's house. At a first glance no one seems to be home.
What do you want to do? [knock the door, look around]: look around

You found the mailbox of Ludovico Arrosto's house. Since the president of Poetry Academy isn't at home at the moment, you could leave a letter.
What do you want to do? [open mailbox]: open mailbox
In order to open the mailbox you have to guess the 4 digits code (each position could contain a number from 0 to 9), given the following evidences:

3871	1 correct digit and in right position
4170	1 correct digit and in wrong position
5028	2 correct digits and in right position
7526	1 correct digit and in right position
8350	2 correct digits and in wrong position

Insert the code:

Knowing this information we can easily crack the code and we find out that the code to open the mailbox is 3029.

Insert the code: 3029
The mailbox opens!
You ask to the Poeta Errante to write his indictment letter...
"Ha-ha, leave it to me! Not surprisingly i am a poet!"
The Poeta Errante write his letter, and insert it in the mailbox.
"Thank you again! Let's see what happens tomorrow. You can sleep in my house tonight, you deserve it!"
You have a strange feeling, the history you know did not turn out this way...
You return to the Poeta Errante's house, spend the evening there until you fall asleep... [Press Enter to continue]

Zzz... Zzz... Zzz...

You wake up with a start in the middle of the night. You are sweaty...
You get up to drink a glass of water. The Poeta Errante is still sleeping
What do you want to do? [go to bed, save the history]: save the history

You decide to return to Ludovico Arrosto's house to destroy the letter of the Poeta Errante. Even if he is the real author of the Divina Commedia, in the history you know Dante is known as the poet who written it.
You arrive in front of the mailbox. You open it and found the letter.
What do you want to do? [destroy letter, return home]: return home
So, why are you came here?

What do you want to do? [destroy letter, return home]: destroy letter
Are you sure? [yes, no]: yes
Really? [yes, no]: yes

You rag the letter in thousand of pieces, and throw them around so no one can find them. Then you return to the Poeta Errante's house to sleep...

[Press Enter to continue]

You wake up the next day, at dawn, and your mood is not the best. You and the Poeta Errante decide to go to the market town, to hear if there is any news about the letter. Once arrived you note that there is a minsterl in the center of the square. What he says leaves no doubt:

"Dante annouces his next opera! The Divina Commedia!"

"Dante annouces his next opera! The Divina Commedia!"

The Poeta Errante does not understand what is going on...

What do you want to do? [hug poeta errante, do nothing]: hug poeta errante

The Poeta Errante runs away, until he disappears from your sight. You have done your duty, and now it's time to leave. In this epoch you did not find Zero. You return to Zero's time machine you used to travel up here, but the spacetime coordinates are all wrong. What a mess! Someone touched this machine when you were with the Poeta Errante! There is the instructions manual opened on a particular page and a little folded piece of paper.

Do you want to open it? [yes, no]: yes

This communication method is something never seen in this epoch. It's not really like sending a big, whole, message, but, instead, dived it in little p...ieces, and send them one at time...

Do you want to return to the present? SOLVE THIS RIDDLE! AH AH AH!

Solving this riddle was pretty challenging but in the end we figured out that this was a Wireshark hex dump. We just needed to copy this data into a file and import it into Wireshark.

Now it is time to follow the TCP Stream, to do this Right Click and then click on Follow TCP Stream.

This is it! Or is it?

If we take a closer look we notice that four characters at the end of the flag are color coded red-red-blue-blue. But the rest of the flag is red-blue alternating. This is because there were some errors during the transmission of the packets.

To correct this error we need to swap those charcaters that were transmitted wrongly and get the correct flag.
